PRETTY WEDDINGS IN OLD VIRGINIA

Quiet Ceremony Uniting Mr. Rogers and Miss Lile.

FINE CEREMONY AT WAVERLY

Miss Blanche Baird Becomes the Bride of Mr. Elijah Moffitt-A Young Man of Rockingham Elopes and Has Trouble to Get License.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Oct. 15 .-A very quiet but none the less a very pretty wedding was that which was cele-brated at 4 o clock this alternoon in the handsome parlors of Professor and Mrs. Wildam Minor Life's residence on East Lawn at the University of Virginia, when Miss Mary Lile, the sister of Pro-fessor Lie, was married to Mr. Edward Reinboid Rogers, of Petersburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. John Bléout, rector of Grace-Street Church, Petersburg, the groom's pastor. The officiating minister was to have been Dr. T. M. Carson, Mrs. Lie's lather, whose recent death in Lynchburg made a radical change of plans for the wedding parlors of the Lile residence were tastefully decorated with magnificent themums, the color scheme of white and green being thus effectively heightened.

There were present only the families of Mr. Rogers and Miss Lile and a very few friends of each.

THE BRIDE.

The bride was handsomely and very becomingly attired in a dress of white crepe de chine, elaborately trimmed with duch-ess lace. She carried no flowers. The maid of honor, Miss Louise Cocke, of the University, was attired in white organdy. The best man was a brother of the groom, Mr. Floyd Rogers, now of the Episcopal Theological Seminary at Alexadria, but for two years a student of the University.

Bir and Mrs. Rogers left over the Southers Baurond at 5:50 o'clock for the North, then the nonermone will be spent at

The wedding present received by the

The bride is one of the most nopular of the University spirits. She is very pretty a transformer and winsome woman, and highly accomplished.

THE GROOM.

Mr. Rogers is a doctor of philosophy of the University, and has had considerable experience in tenching in connection with his special work. It's is at present principal of Miss Ellet's School in Richmond, and hast session taucht at Brown's University School near this city. In awarding him his Ph. D. degree, Professor Noah R. Dawig, of the school of losic and psychology at the University sale of Mr. Rogers that he had taught the University classes in that school during Mr. Davis alseence on account of illness, and that he (Mr. Payls) could not have done the work better than it was done by Mr. Rogers, Commy from Professor Davis this is as the compliment as could be paid any r. Tr. Rogers was, during addition-in-chief of the 'Ir. Rogers was, during Interest to the Jefferson Literary Society more than once and its acknowledged best debater. He is a brilliant roung man with a great future be-

QUIET HOME WEDDING

Mr. J. Quint Yowell Makes Miss Nellie K. Danne His Bride.

K. Danne His Bride.

(Special Dispetch to The Thues.)

RUCKERSVILLE, VA., October 15.—
Mr. J. Quint Yowell and Miss Nellie K.
Deane were married on the 12th Instant at the home of the bride, the Rev. Mr.
White (Dpiscopal), rector of Stanardstille, officialing.

The bride was becomingly attired in a puit of gray, trimmed in stitching and white pearl buttons, with white silk blouse. She wore a gray felt hat covered with white silk and trimmed with long Miss Eula Marshall, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Charles Dur-rei was best man. Miss Hettle Deane and Mr. Walter Via were attendants, also Mr. Walter Via were attendants, also.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, Smith said the girl's father would kill

(Special Disputch to The Times.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, October 15.-David

Morey married a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conroy, of Tivoli, last nummer. The couple went to Massachusetts on their wedding trip, and the bride was taken sick and died within

After the funeral Morey demanded the wedding spresents, which were valued at $400. The Conroys refused to survender them. Morey brought suit, and the case was tried last Saturday before

Armed with the execution, Morey, ac-

Conroy knocked down Constable Link

for Wedding Gifts

Husband Wins Suit

the widower.

and cut his face.

STRANGE STORIES OF REAL LIFE

Justice Burnett, who decided in favor of married in Black Diamond, Washington, where he settled after his return from companied by Constables Warringer and Link, went to the Conroy house to-day to get the presents. George Conroy, brother of the dead woman, forbade them to enter the house, but the constables brushed him aside. Later

Conroy was arrested on a charge of only a few friends and relatives being present. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. D. S. Deane, of Quinque, and is a lovely young lady of the brunette type.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr.

James D. Yowell, also of Quinque, and is an estimable young man. He is a bro-ther of Mr. Dallas H. Yowell and Mr. Victor Yowell, of Richmond. They will be at home to their friends at the residence of the groom, near Albano, Va.

ELEGANT CHURCH WEDDING

A Fashionable Assemblage Witness Ceremony at Waverly, Va. (Special Dispatch to The Times.) WAVERLY, VA., October 15 .- One of the prettiest marriages of the season was by Rev. R. H. Peel, pastor of the church here.

The ushers were Mr. J. E. West and Dr. J. E. Rawls, of Suffolk; Mr. J. F. Eahd, of Lynchburg, and Mr. C. D. West, of Newport News, Promptly at 5 o'clock of Newport News, Promptly at 5 o'clock these entered from the right and left aisles in single file, followed on the left by the maid of honor, Miss Grace West, of Waverly; the ring bearer, little Mary Sterhenson, of Wakefield, and by the bride, leaning upon the arm of her brother-in-law, Judge J. F. West, of Waverly, who graye her away. verly, who gave her away.

Herbert Moffitt, of Asheboro, N. C., fol-lewed the ushers on the right to the chancel, where the ceremony was solemnly and beautifully performed. Miss Blanche Fleetwood, the accomplished doughter of Mr. P. F. Fleetwood, of this rlace, rendered Mendelssohn's and the march from Lohengrin while the bridal entered and retired from the ndded beauty and enchantment to the eit on the 5 o'clock train for Washingandsomest ever seen in this section. The bride was dressed in a handsome going-away gown of navy blue broad-cloth, and wore her mother's brooch, an heirloom of the family, as a belt pin.

PENINSULAR WEDDINGS

Mr. Platz and Miss Hawkins, Mr. Coburn and Wiss Williams.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 15.— In the parsonage of Phoebus Methodist Chirch, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Sam-uel Lowis Platz, of Washington, and Miss Martha Hawkins, daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hawkins, of Buckroe Beach, were married, Rev. Warren Burr, the paster, officiating. Harry Ful-ler, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man; Miss Sallie Hawkins was maid of honor. After a reception at the home of Mr. Fuller, the couple left for Washing-out, via Richmond and the Horse Show. Timothy Gray Coburn and Miss Mattie Lillian Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, were married in Norfolk this afternoon by Rev. Lambert. It was a runaway match, the couple going from Hampton, where they will make their home. They returned tomake their home. They returned to-night and received parental forgivenness. Harry Pleasant Thompson, of Newport News, and Miss Essie Mitchell, daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, who

TROUBLES OF ELOPERS

Couple Fleeing from a Father's Wrath Have Hard Time Getting License.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

SCRANTON, Oct. 15 .- Over the grave of Edward Aplaknap, a Philippine vet-eran, was revealed a matrimonial tangle, unsuspected by the dead man's friends.

While the burial service was being read two women, both clad in widow's weeds, wept. The attention of each was at-

"Who are you?" asked one of the

"I'm Mrs. Aplaknap; who are you?"

Then it developed that Aplaknap had the Phillippines. He had told that he was the reply.

"I'm Mrs. Aplaknap, this man's wife," answered the other woman.

at Husband's Grave

1700 Widows Meet

women in black.

was a single man.

him if he was caught, as he was bitterly opposed to the marriage.

They eloped this morning and went to Charlestown, W. Va., where a license was refused them on account of the bride's youth. They returned to Winchester, but a second refusal also met them. This atternoon they went to Hagerstown, Md., where they succeeded in getting married. They returned here to-night.

DAVISON-HUTTER

A Quiet but Elega t Home Wedding, Beautiful Decorations.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., October 15.—
Miss Mary Lyons Hutter daughter of the late Ferdinand Hutter was united in marriage here to-day to Mr. Frank G. Davidson, Jr., formerly of Washington, D. C., but now of this city. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 this celebrated here this afternoon at 5 afternoon at the residence of the bride's Miss Blanche Baird, of this place, and Mr. Elijah Moffit, of Asheboro, N. C. The interior of the church was beautifully decerated with potted plants and cut flowers. The room was darkened, and under the glow of a softened light from the chandellers the beautiful souvenir ring ceremony was performed by Rev.

J. Pressley Barrett, D. D., of Christian Memorial Temple, Norfolk, Va., assisted by Rev. R. H. Peel, pastor of the church ing to a bereavement in the family of the bride, the wedding was very quiet, most effective and made up a picture of rare attractiveness.

The maid of honor, Miss Nannie Griffin, daughter of Judge Samuel Griffin, of Bedford, and a cousin of the bride, were a most becoming gown of white organdle over white slik, with a large white picture hat and carried white carnations. Two young ladies, Misecs Mary Christian and Claudine Hutter, cousing of the bride, gracefully performed the duty of opening the door. They were prettily attired in white organdle. The bride's costume was of white crepe de chene over white taf-feta with a large white picture hat bearing white estrich tips. She car-ried a shower bouquet of violets. The Baltimore.

Immediately after the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a bridal tour which includes Thousand Islands, Niagara, Canada and Boston. They will return in about two weeks and will be at home at No. 722 Clay Street.

Mr. Davideon is in the brokerage business in Lynchburg and his energy and business especity have enabled him to win a flattering success. He is regarded as a rising young buriness man, and his many fine qualities, together with his courtesy and kindly consideration for oth-ers, have earned for him the confidence and esteem of the entire community. His bride is a charming and beautiful young brightness of intellect have made her ex-

Lyons, daughter of the late James Lyons,

WEDDED IN ROANOKE

Quiet Home Wedding of Miss Annie Lucie Sale-An Anneuncement. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

ROANOKE, VA., October 15.—At high noon to-day Mr. Edward Sidney Hollman, assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Mies Annie Lucie Sale, daughter of and Mass Annie Lucie Sale, daugnter of the late Dr. E. W. Sale, of Bedford City, were married at the residence of the bride, Rev. Dr. Hawkins officiating.

The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends of the parties being present. The couple left on the noon train for Lexington, the former home of the groom.

the groom.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Virginia Allen Spindle, dauthter of Captain T. W. Spindle, and Mr. : dley R. Celes, of Williamsburg. The marwill take place at St. John's Church

A MINISTER MARRIED

Rev. Frank Wotten Osborne Weds Miss Helen Pauline Morton.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) FARMVILLE, VA., October 15 .- A pretty wedding was solemnized at Appomat-tox Church, in Prince Edward county, this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The con-tracting parties were Miss Helen Pauline Morton, a very pretty and accomplished young ady, and Rev. Frank Wotten Osborne, a recent graduate of the Union Theological Seminary, who has charge of a church in Hanover county.

Dr. Richard Meliwaine, of Hampden-

S'dney, officiated.

The ushers were Mtssrz. Samuel Selden and Charlie Price. The certmony over, and left on the afternoon train fer their home, in Hanever.

ISLE OF WIGHT MARRIAGE

Miss Nellie Galt Parker the Bride of Mr Jasper Cotton.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
SUFFOLK, VA., October 15.—Jasper
Cotton, a nephew of Mrs. Charles E.
Pickett, of Washington, D. C., was married this afternoon to Miss Nellie Galt Parker, daughter of George H. Parker, at Benn's Methodist Church, in Isle of Wight county, by Rev. M. S. Colonna. The attendents were Eddle Cotton, the bridegroom's brother, best man; Miss Mary Sue Parker, the bride's sister, maid of honor; Herbert Hall, Crofford Parker, Sidney Ellis and H. W. Phillips, ushers. Partridze-Franks. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 15.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 15. Miss Alice Franks, the eldest daughter of Mrs. W. B. Franks, of Ridge Streat, was married at Recheport, Mo., Monday to Captain H. L. Partridge, of Sedalla, Mo. Miss Franks left this city about two weeks ago to visit relatives in Rocheport, and news was received to-day of her marriage. She is well known here, having resided in the city all her life.

Barrett-Johnson,

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) (Special Displicate 15 Interest)

LOUISA, VA., October 15.—Mr. W. C.
Parrett and Miss Bettle S. Johnson, of the county, were mairfed this afternoon at the home of Rev. Z. P. Richardson, the officiating minister.

The bride is a charming lady of mature ly $800 in funeral expenses she was en- years, and the groom has just turned titled to the chattels Aplaknap had left the forty-fifth mile-stone and is one of

SKIN DISEASES.

ey Back If It Fails to Cure.

SAMPLE OF REMEDY FREE

RESUL: OF IMPURE BLOOD.

The above picture shows the effect of B. B. B. on W. C. Rebinson, of Augusta, Ga., clearing his skin, healing all sores, making his blood pure and rich.

gusta, Ga., clearing his skin, healing all scres, making his blood pure and rich.

Is your blood pure? Are you once of it? If your blood is diseased or weak, if it is thin and fell of bumere, if it is hot, causing liching, servers seenations, all run dows.

Fimples or Offensive Eruptions, Splotches, or Copper-Gelered Spots, or Rash on the Skin, Suppurating Festering Sores, Glands Swollen, Ulcers on any part of the body, cld Chronic Seres, Bolls, Carbundles, Palas and Aches in Benes or Jeista, Hair or Eyebrews failing out, persistent Sore Mouth, Guns or Throat, Scroftia, Catarh. Rheumatism, thus take Retanic Blood Baim (B. B. B.). Soes all bores, Finples and Eruptions will heal perfectly. Aches and Palas cease, Swellings subside, and a perfect, never to return cure made. Gives Skin the rich glow of perfect health, gives you strength and vigor by giving you pure rich bloed.

B. B. B. Oures Koesma, Itching Humers Storp the intense burning and Itchiax, heals every sore, seab or scale, with risings, bumpe and swellings, by giving a pure, healthy blood supply to the skin. Cools the blood Cures where all else fells.

B. B. B. Cures Cancer of All Kinds, Suppurating Swellings, Eating Sores. Ugly Ulcers, after all else falls, healing the sore perfectly. If you have a persistent pimple, wart, swellen glands, shooting, stington palae, take Blood Baim, and they will disappear before they develop into Cancer.

(Write for special circular on Cancer.)

Betanic Bleod Baim, S. B. B.) is Pleasant to take. Theroughly texted for 30 years. Composed of Pure Stanic Ingredienta Strengthens weak kidners, improves the directions. Sample asent free by wirthing Blood Baim (S. B. B.) is Pleasant to take by old or young. Si per large bottle at drug.

Six Jurymen Secured-Prisoner is Represented by a Formid. able Array of Counsel?

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK! Oct. 15.—The second trial of Roland B. Molineux for the murder of Mrs. Catherine J. Adams was begun to-day in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court before Justice John S. Lambert. The proceedings were marked by the unusual rapidity with which jurors were obtained, six talesmen having been accepted and sworn before the court adjourned. Immediately after the prisoner had been brought into court, General Molineux entered and seated himself by the side of his son. The prisoner was represented by former Gover-nor Black, former District-Attorney W. M. K. Olcott, Barlow S. Weeks and George Gordon Battle.

After Mr. Weeks had filed a protest against the special panel of jurors on the ground of unconstitutionality of the law providing for it, and had entered an exception to Judge Lambert's ruling, the calling of talesmen proceeded rapidly. Six jurors had been accepted when the

WANT MORE WARSHIPS

Minister Bowen Asks that They Be Sen in View of Critical Situation.

(By Asseciated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—United States Minister Bowen, at Caracan, has cabled the State Department, asking that one or perhaps two mere warships be sent to reinforce the gunboat Marietta at La Guaira, in view of the present critical situation which has arisen at the Venesuclan capital. Sometime ago, when Pres ident Castro left his capital, Minister Bowen expressed to the State Department his fears that an occupation of the capi-tal by the revolutionary forces would re-sult in rioting and pillage and be attended by great dangers to unprotected for-eigners. Such a situation it is in-ferred here, is again imminent. It is probable that either the Panther, now at Colon, or the Cincinnati, now off Hayti,

The following cablegram received this morning from Minister Bowen, dated last night at Caracas, shows the critical codition of affirs in the field.
"The army is still near Valencia; no particulars obtainable. Valencia closesurrounded and battle now going will be ordered to the Venezuelan capi

Dinwiddie Residence Burned.
(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
MERIDIAN, VA., October 15.—The residence of Mr. L. E. Coleman, a well-known farmer of Dinwiddie county, was destroyed by fire Monday about 2 P. M. The fire is supposed to have occurred from a defective flue. The loss is estimated at $2,500. No insurance.

Mr. Coleman had been making large improvements to his home during the last two years.

dend buried in Philadelphia cemsteries. Among the speakers on that occasion the speakers of the decades of the closest of the chapter—Mrs. T. Ashby Biythe, Mrs. Naudain Buer, Mrs. James H. Hoffecker, Mrs. John D. Famack, Miss Gertrude Agnes Byers, Miss Margaret Rientill and Mrs. James T. Halsey—will go to Virginia for the unveiling ceremonies.

The Devon Post, G. A. R., will also send representatives.

FINE ATTENDNACE

Interesting Events and Sale of Cattle.

SENATOR GLASS PURCHASER

The Roanoke Brass Band Gave a Splendid Concert-The Woman's Exhibit is Very Full and Crowded at All Times.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) EAST RADFORD, VA., October 15 .-Three thousand people passed the gates Three thousand people passed the rates at the second day of the fair here to-day. The weather was ideal, and the fair management is happy. The Roanoke band opened the exercises of the day with a magnificent concert in front of the grandstand for one hour. the grandstand for one hour. THE RACES.

The first race of the season was called at 11 o'clock. Trotting race, six entries-June Bug, Axlist, Roberta, Jack Ridman, Jack Crook, Frank Crook—purse $150, one mile—June Bug hrst, Roberta second. Second race—coits, one-half mile, running, six entries, purse, $100-Meadow Mald won.

Maid won.

Third race-running, one mile, purse, $200, four entries-Cabin Boy, owner, Geo. R. Richard (col.), of Richmond, won easily. Time, 2:10.

Fourth race-running, purse, $100-Silvendole won the half mile dash in 1:02.

CATTLE SALE. At 12 o'clock the cattle sale was resumed or one hour and nearly completed. for one hour and nearly completed.
Theroughbreds went off cheap.
The women's building exhibit is very full and is crowded at all times.
Hon. Carter Glass purchased some of the thoroughbred cattle for his farm to-

PREPARING TO LAUNCH

Paving Company Strike a Bad Piece of Ground in Newport News. (Special Dispatch to The Times.)

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Oct. 15 .-Preparations are complete for the launching of the Old Dominion steamer Monroe at the shipyard Saturday morn-ing. The boat will go over on the tide at 10 o'clock.

it is expected that the crowd will be unusually large for a launching of this kind. The Richmond and Nerfolk con-kind. The Richmond and Nerfolk contingents will number many hundred each. The brick work on the new joiner department is finished and the new machinery will seen be installed.

In addition to original contracts, the shippard has an unusual amount of repair work on hand and is increasing its force as ramidly as possible.

The Warren Waterproof Bituminuous Macadam Company has struck a snar on Lafsyette Avenue. It is like trying to pave the bettomiess pit and if good intentions were all required the job would pave the bottomiess pit and it good in-tentions were all required the job would have been completed menths ago.

As it is much of the paving will prob-ably have to be taken up. It is likely that tarred plank will be used under the rock in many places, athough the specirock in many places, athough the speci-fications call for stone, and stone only. However, the Council is sympathetic and willing to make reasonable concessions. Vice-President J. M. Wright and Gen-eral Manager George C. Warren, of the company, came down from New York this morning and held an inquest over the job. The verdict has net yet been announced.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

Members to Contest for Silver Cup Mr. Orchard in Richmond. (Special Disputch to The Times.)

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

LYNCHRURG, VA., Oct. 15.—Messrs.
Fred Gilbert and J. H. Collins, well known expert shote, will participate in a shoot to be held Friday afterneon by Cakwood Club. An interesting event of the shoot will be a context by members for a silver bowl, which was presented to the club by Dr. Darlington, of Concordsville, Fs., and will be shot for every year. Dr. Darlington accompanied the Lynchburg Gun Club en its hunt in Hallfax some time ago.

Lynchburg Gun Gus en its aunt in Hallfax some time ago.

Mr. George Greward, who for some time past has been in Steengero, N. C., has accepted a position at Briggs Starmacy in Richmond, and assumed his suites there on October 10th. Mr. Oreard was for several years a resident of Lynchburg, and while here wen the scandeance and esteom of the entire esymmetry.

Mr. Thomas Cooney, who left here after the war to become a resident of Illines, is new for the first time visiting has old home. During the war he was a gallant member of Company A. Eleventh Virginia Regiment.

Regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Taylor, of West Appomattox, passed through Lynchburg yesterday en route for Dakota, where they will make their future home. Mr. Taylor will go into the real estate business. He has sold his handsome home in Appomat-

PHILADELPHIA MONUMENT

Dabney H. Maury Chapter Selects Speaker for the Occasion.

(Special Planatch to The Times.)
PHILADELIPHIA. PA., October lö.— General Dabney H. Maury Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy met yesterday afternoon and made arrangements for the unveiling on October Sin, at Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va, of a monument dedicated to the memory of the known and unknown Confederate dend buried in Philadelphia cemateries.

Among the speakers on the commended that Mr.

Let the World Know What ____ BUY You Have to and You Can EXCHANGE ANYTHING UNDER THE SUN

SUNDAY TIMES WANT COLUMNS WILL LET THE WORLD KNOW WILL BE QUICKLY SUPPLIED Only 15 Cents for 15 Words

Wedding Silverware.

Buying silverware is a delicate undertaking—it is so easy to miscalculate. An overstock of these goods impels us to make exceptional offers just now on sliver pieces for the table! The ware infrom a most reliance manufacture—heavy triple plate, and the designs and decorations are in exquisite taste.

This is really a rare opportunity to get a welding present.

J. T. ALLEN & CO., Jewelers,

Fourteenth and Main Streets.

SHAW'S BOND OFFER

His Proposition Has Found But Few to Accept It-(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 15 .- On September 25th kist Secretary Shaw Isseptember 2018 and Secretary Shaw is-sued an order to the effect that the de-partment would purchase any of the United States 5 per cent, bonds of 1904, at 195 flat, if presented on or before Oc-tober 1518, to-day. Under that offer the Secretary has purchased as to the amount | TEARING AWAY THE OLD of $23.590. Seme days after this notice was issued, the Recretary announced that offers for the sale of governments as and is would be considered by the department, but in-timated that the prices must be low if sales were made. Offers under this an-nouncement have been received aggrega-ting as follows: $3,769,000 4s. of 1925, at $152.35; $200,000 4s. of 1907, at $111.50; all Secretary Shaw is now on his way to Oakland City, Ind., where he will deliver a political speech to-morrow. When questioned in regard to the statement that the Secretary was planning to purchase a large block of bonds, the treasury officials now here declined, in the Secretary's absence, to discuss the matter further than to say that the report probably was without foundation. The fact that the Secretary has so far declined all bo offers is taken as conclusive that he is a present, at least, in the marke.

POINT PLEASURE PAVILION

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT NEWS, VA., October 15 .-The work of tearing down the pleasure pavilien at Old Point began to-day, by order of the War Department. The struc-ture is causing a sand-bar to form in RACE PROBLEM IN NEW ENGLAND.

Objects to a Negro

Teacher for His Son

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEWPORT, R. I., October 15 .- At the last meeting of the School Board, George H. Ellis, a citizen, appeared, and said his wife strongly objected to having their sen taught by a colored teacher, and he netified the committee that if the child would not attend school.

The beard then went into executive session and considered a report of the truant officer, who recommended that Mr. Ellis' sen be prosecuted under the truancy act. The board adopted the truant officer's report, and an arrest may coller. In that case the jid will plead follow. In that case the aid will plead not guilty, and his father will make a test case before the higher courts. The teacher is a daughter of the Rev. Mahlon Van Horne, the American Consul at St.

Parents of other pupils have objected, but none have taken their children out of

A Marriage That

Stirs Up Springfield

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) SPRINGFIELD, MASS., October 15 .- The reported mariage of Herbert St. Clair Rainey, a colored letter carrier, to Miss Elizabeth Genung, a talented young woman without a trace of negro blood her veins, is received with varying em tions by the friends of the young couple! Rainey is a graduate of the Springfield High School, and the son of one of field High School, and the son of one of the first colored congressman to take a seat in Vashington. Miss Genung is the daughter of a Weathersfield, Conn., clergyman. Through a civil service ex-amination Rainey obtained a position as amination rainey obtained a position as substitute letter carrier, and in this capacity became acquainted with Miss Genung. The friendship ripened into leve, which was frowned upon by the young woman's parents.

Notwithstanding parental opposition the couple refused to be thwarted.

Light Biscuit Light Pastry Light Cakes
Light Work Light Cost.—SUKE and— Quick-as-a-wink!

No more of the cake that is dough.